WHITE TROOPS AT LAST BE TOO LATE

To Save Tottling Government of the Czar.

WITH TREPPOFF HE ALONE CAN STEM THE TIDE

St. Petersburg in State of Siege Isolated From Rescue Without and Torn by Mobs Within.

Crash Coming Fast.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 28.—Day after day passes without the promulgation of Russia's new governmental organ, a responsible ministerial cabinet to bring order out of the present administrative chaos. Count Witte, to whom all factions look to assume the premiership, has spent almost the entire time of the past two days at Piterhof wrestling with the emperor, insisting upon conditions in connection with his appointment which his majesty was unwilling to grant. Upon his return to St. Petersburg tonight Count Witte announced that the cabinet project, which has been lying dormant for three days on the emperor's table, would not be promulgated tomorrow, intimating thereby that his program, which is known to include a species of constitution involving the granting of the "Four Liberties," freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, freedom of the press and freedom of the person—has not been accepted.

It is felt here that the delay cannot be long protracted and that it is only a question of hours when the emperor confides the fortunes of the dynasty and the government to Count Witte's hands.

Meanwhile the situation is passing from bad to worse, with matters at a less how to act, and the revolutionists, encouraged by the inactivity of the government, are growing bolder and more insistent in the demands made in their speeches.

Think Trepoff Is Weakening.

It is true there has been no disorder in St. Petersburg and that General Trepoff, Russia's other strong man, has taken every measure to put down an uprising in its incipency, but he has not felt safe enough of the possibility of a revolution to act boldly with regard to the revolutionary meetings at the university, and has contented himself with issuing warnings which, not having been enforced, are again being ignored as lack of backbone.

As before Friday's giant meeting at the university, it was again announced today that further meetings there would not be permitted, but less portals were again open tonight and the hospitality of the university was extended to a group of lawyers and other professional men, one of whose orators, referring to the Russian folk legend that the world is supported on the backs of three whales, said that the autocracy rested on three cetaceans: MONEY, THE PEOPLE, and the moral sympathy of the people alienated, and that the army alone remains true, and that it is predicted, would not be for long.

Another speaker, recently preached terrorism and advocated "making an example" of a number of high personages.

Count Witte's ally in the stupendous task he is about to undertake will be General Trepoff, who, though all his life has been spent as an instrument for repression, and though he twice has escaped attempts to execute the terrorists' sentence of death, has come to realize that the old order of things is changing and giving place to a new, and is now a genuine convert to the policy of giving the people a share in the government.

Should Witte and Trepoff now fall, the opinion is that nothing will save the present government from complete ruin. Many shrewd observers believe that Witte comes too late.

St. Petersburg in State of Siege.

The conditions in St. Petersburg are that of a city under siege, with an uprising threatened from within, almost completely isolated and its scanty stores of provisions being rapidly exhausted. The situation, however, is overwhelming.

General Trepoff has 50,000 troops under his command, which are distributed in every section of the city. There is scarcely a block without its military patrol. Infantry and cavalry are quartered in court yards all over town, the barracks are crowded, and the watch-fires of the soldiers who are bivouacking in the streets light up the thoroughfares where electricity has been extinguished. The Nevsky Prospect, the city's main avenue, which last night was in darkness, tonight presents a weird appearance. A powerful searchlight mounted at the admiralty illuminates the center of the avenue with a blinding light, leaving the sidewalks in darkness. Drivers in the roadway, dazzled by the glare, were unable to see where they were going and as throngs in obscurity on the sidewalks were in but a little better plight. There was constant confusion, which was augmented during the evening by an attempt of Cosacks and gendarmes to clear the sidewalks. Two hundred thousand men are idle. Workmen's meetings held throughout the city today unanimously favored continuing the strike. The lawyers during the afternoon stopped all business of the courts.

Moscow Also Paralyzed.

The situation at Moscow parallels that at St. Petersburg. The same paralysis has seized Russia's second city. The strike is general. The people are defying all prohibitions and are swarming to the universities and other meeting places. A provisional government has already been organized and is waiting to exercise its powers. The university is barricaded against the troops.

The populations of other towns are growing more violent and demonstrations of disorders are arriving in in-

EXPRESS ROBBER'S WIFE YIELDS UP $5,000

AFTER REPEATED DENIALS MRS. CUNIFFE REVEALS MONEY IN LINING OF BABY CARRIAGE.

EDWARD GEORGE CUNIFFE. Wife Earned $55 a Month and Stole $5,000.

Pittsburg, Oct. 28.—The persistent report that Mrs. Cuniffe, wife of Edward C. Cuniffe, the Adams express robber, had in her possession $5,000 of the $12,000 stolen by her husband on October 9, was confirmed today when Superintendent H. J. Rideman of the Pinkerton detective agency, went to the Cuniffes' home, No. 311 Lottess street, West End, this city, and in the lining of a baby carriage found a package containing $5,000. On the night Cuniffe was brought here from Bridgeport, Conn., where he was captured, he made a confession to the authorities that he had given his wife $5,000. Mrs. Cuniffe, who, in the meantime, had moved to her father's home at Hartford, Conn., denied that she had the money, notwithstanding that she was shown the written confession made by her husband. She was repeatedly questioned, however, and today admitted to the detectives that she had the money. The authorities say there now remains about $6,000 which has not been accounted for.

BLOODSHED ON LARGE SCALE SEEMS IMMINENT

St. Petersburg, Oct. 28.—A condition bordering on panic prevails here today. Business is completely suspended. Soldiers are everywhere in the streets, and bloodshed on a large scale is feared. The government is trying to appease the infuriated populace, but the revolutionaries seem determined to force an armed conflict. The last railroad connection with the capital and the outside world was broken last night when the Finland railroad discontinued service between St. Petersburg and the Finnish border, but communication by water is still open. From all over the empire the story is the same: work stopped, no newspapers printed, schools closed and business suspended. The cry of the masses is always the same—political liberty. Telephone and telegraphic communication with Moscow has entirely ceased. St. Petersburg is entirely isolated from Moscow.

STRIKERS TOSS A BOMB TO GOMEL POLICE CHIEF

Washington, Oct. 28.—The comptroller of the currency stated today that he had not yet received any detailed report from the Receiver Cunningham of the Enterprise National bank at Allegheny City nor from Judge Oldham, representative of the controller's office, who has been at Pittsburg for several days. That labor of making a thorough examination and report will be very great, owing particularly to the suicide of the cashier of the bank and the consequent difficulty of ascertaining the condition of affairs, that it will be several days yet, possibly weeks, before an accurate and exact report of the condition of the bank can be sent to the comptroller.

Letters and messages from Mr. Cunningham, however, justify the comptroller in making the statement that the failure will be a very bad one and will justify an assessment of one hundred per cent on the stockholders, against their liability and these assessments have been made today. The
